PLS Logistics Promotes Bob Janeda to VP, Human Resources

March 25, 2008

Rochester, PA – PLS Logistics Services is pleased to announce the promotion of Bob Janeda to Vice President of Human Resources.

Bob joined PLS in 2007 as Director of Recruiting and was integral in increasing the company's workforce by 37% last year. As part of PLS' initiative to build and retain a world-class workforce, Bob will continue to drive recruiting and training efforts while managing the corporate retention and communication strategies.

It is the mission of PLS Logistics to be the strongest link in our customers' supply chain, where excellence is not only our goal, it is our promise. Based in Rochester, PA, just north of Pittsburgh, PLS ships nearly one million loads annually utilizing a proprietary web-based transportation management platform. These loads are transported throughout North America via a network of nearly 5,000 motor carriers with more than 75,000 trucks, Class-1 railroads and major barge companies. More information on PLS Logistics Services is available at www.pghlogistics.com, or by calling 724-709-9000.
